
COPYRIGHT ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT - SBC

This form aims at preserving the interests of SBC, its associates and collaborators. In order to apply the same treatment to all publications, other forms may not replace this one. The original content of this copyright assignment agreement may not be modified. This form is designed for new material and must accompany works submitted and approved for publication in SBC's conference proceedings, books, magazines or other publications.

Authors are allowed to reuse all or parts of this material in other works. However, third parties must request permission for the authors and ensure that the source and the rights of the SBC are properly referenced.

If the work has several authors, one of them must sign this form and certify that he is an authorized agent for all the others authors.
